

Letter from Mrs. Mills to Reverend Hall, taken from the
New York American of October 18, 1922.

The following is an excerpt from letter No.4

"I don't want to stay for service. I haven't unlocked the doors as I was asked to and kept my word. But it seems as though I am unworthy to do other things I was asked.

"Of course, it has hurt me. Perhaps again I don't understand-you have had time to do them. Well, it doesn't matter one bit what comes. I had a simple greeting but did not leave it. I cannot stay to such a service when our hearts are bitter. But since it is a duty of the church I think the truest way is to forget all about yourself and do what the church bids, forgetting everything but that you are the priest. "
